What to Expect: One of the Beaches chain of exceptionally kid-friendly resorts, this one attracts former NBA superstar Michael Jordan and his family, as well as less celebrated families from around the world. A diverse staff organizes day and night activities to make certain everyone has a good time. Augmented by tropical plantings, the Beaches carefully preserves Providenciales' low-scrub flora while augmenting it with tropical plantings, creating a natural environment throughout the resort's 38 acres.

Amenity Highlights: A French Village lodging section features an enormous, 4,000-square-foot pool in a formal garden. The children/teens entertainment center, Pirates Island, includes a pool with water slides and a non-alcoholic swim-up bar as well as a large spa tub. Two other pools, one with adjacent spa tub, and a children's pool are located in a beachside lodging section. Next to the beach, in the resort's center, is an adults-only spa tub with an ocean view for 20 people. The beach is furnished with thatched shelters and lounge chairs with folding shades.

Insider Tip: JoJo, a friendly Atlantic bottlenose dolphin, frequents Grace Bay, which laps the resort's beach, offering swimmers and snorkelers close-up encounters. (No touching allowed.)
