

Bucuti Beach Resort & Spa

Hotel Rating: 4 Star

Overview

Acres of white sand

Designed for romance-minded couples, this resort sits on 14 acres of white sand along Eagle Beach.

Guestroom amenities

Rooms offer garden or ocean views and include a balcony or terrace.

Seaside dining

Enjoy dinner at a seaside restaurant modeled after a Dutch galleon.

What to Expect: Popular with couples because of its determined efforts to maintain peace and quiet, the independently owned and operated resort discourages guests from bringing children and offers no children's facilities. Environmental awareness is another theme. Cactus gardens, palm trees, and expansive lawns maintained with recycled water substitute for water-demanding plantings such as flowering bushes.

Amenity Highlights: The Aruba Bucuti Beach Resort's frontage on Eagle Beach, rated one of the world's 10 best by Travel + Leisure, extends for 200 yards, is 150 yards deep, and features 71 widely spaced thatched-roof shades. Freshwater swimming is available in a 50-by-25-foot pool, and a four-person spa tub sits on the pool's sundeck. Motorized water sports are barred in front of the resort, but water sports are available from independent vendors farther north.

Insider Tip: The Alhambra Casino a quarter-mile away includes a casual shopping bazaar that's open evenings--one of Aruba's few after-dark shopping spots.
