

Peter Island Resort and Spa

Hotel Rating: 5 Star ★★★★★

Overview

Private setting

A 30-minute boat trip from Tortola, this 52-room resort on private 1,800-acre Peter Island features five distinctive beaches.

Tropical style

Guestrooms and suites supply privacy and tropical ambience. Suites have two-person jetted tubs and showers.

Boat transport

The resort's boats transport guests to snorkeling and diving sites and to neighboring islands for shopping and sightseeing.

What to Expect: With guests discouraged from bringing children under age 8 and no televisions in guestrooms and suites, the resort attracts adults seeking rest, relaxation, and privacy. In addition to its five beaches, the hilly island offers myriad points for viewing the sea and neighboring islands along a narrow road suitable for bicycling, walking, and touring by complimentary shuttle. Resort wear dress (long pants, collared shirt, and closed-toe shoes for men) is expected in the lobby area. The room price is Full American Plan (FAP), with all meals (but not beverages) included.

Amenity Highlights: Five beaches grace the resort. Crescent-shaped Deadman's Bay Beach extends about 1 mile and provides swimming, snorkeling, and water sports opportunities. Although all Virgin Island beaches are public, the resort steers day-visitors to Little Deadman's Bay Beach so resort guests have the larger beach to themselves. Tiny Honeymoon Beach offers intimacy and a single thatched-roof shade. Big Reef Bay Beach's 0.75-mile length is for beachcombing. Furnished with lounges and umbrellas, White Bay Beach is noted for snorkeling, turtle-watching, and privacy. For freshwater swimming, a freeform pool surrounded by cushioned lounge chairs lies between the lobby and the Caribbean.

Insider Tip: A few chairs provide a spot to view sunsets 400 feet above sea level near the island's southernmost point. Complimentary shuttle service transports guests here, where they enjoy panoramic views not only of the setting sun but of the Caribbean, the U.S. Virgin Island of St. John, and Norman Island, where Robert Louis Stevenson located the action in Treasure Island.

Room Features

Hawk's Nest Villa - 3 Bedroom Peter Island's Hawk's Nest villa is nestled midway up a plush hillside above the yacht-filled harbor and Deadman's Bay and offers grand vistas, and invaluable privacy. It has three bedrooms, four baths, a large living room with media section, kitchenette, private pool, and sun deck to enjoy the views. It offers a spacious alternative for families or vacationing couples desiring their own private, deluxe haven.

Beach Front Jr. Suite This spacious unit offers a comfortable sitting area, large bathroom (with a Euro shower and 2 person Jacuzzi tub), walk-in closet and a private terrace or balcony with a spectacular view of Deadman's Bay Beach. Each suite is surrounded with tropical gardens and has a balcony or patio overlooking Deadman's Bay and the British Virgin Islands beyond. Hammocks sway gently in the cool breeze and invite guests to relax and pamper themselves outdoors as well as within their elegant accommodations. Suites provide spaciousness as one area effortlessly flows into another. French doors open onto a patio or balcony with a table and deck chairs; the king sized bed resides in a nook across from a large sitting area. A romantic Jacuzzi, wide enough for two, is the highlight of the bath area. Large windows and doors bring the outdoors in to match the furnishings with subdued palettes of sunny yellow, gold and Caribbean blues. Ceiling fans whirl over the bed and living area to supplement island breezes, or optional air-conditioning can provide cooling temperatures. Euro shower and spa combinations include the Jacuzzi tub and double-headed shower fixtures on both walls of the walk through shower. A large window separates the Jacuzzi from the bedroom and provides ocean views while lavishly soaking. Bathroom interiors surround guests with imported Spanish tile and original stonework laid by one of the island's staff members, Hugh Benji Benjamin.

Crow's Nest Villa - 4 Bedroom The four bedroom Crow's Nest Villa, poised on a high hill above the resort, delivers panoramic views of the surrounding islands in all directions. It provides an idyllic setting for wedding celebrations or the ultimate villa vacation. Its unsurpassed amenities include wrap-around terraces, a private pool, full kitchen, chef, personal steward, and vehicle. Each bedroom offers a private bath with deep soaking tub and separate shower, verandah and separate entrance. The 3,500 square-foot floor plan accommodates up to eight guests.

Ocean View Nestled between our marina and colorful, palm fringed gardens are Peter Island's Ocean View rooms with picture perfect vistas of romantic sunsets, blue waters, and sailboats lazily drifting by in Sir Francis Drake's Passage. Each of the thirty two air-conditioned rooms have a private outdoor area surrounded with clusters of tropical plants and palms. They are conveniently located near Trade winds Restaurant, bar, and lounge and only a short five minute walk from Deadman's Bay beach. Four accommodations are in each structure -- two up and two down. The floorplan is designed to showcase the ocean views with French doors opening to spacious patios and balconies overlooking the gardens and the Caribbean. Guests can relax in the large, overstuffed room chairs and recline in the comfortable deck lounge chair outside. Ocean View rooms on the second level have French doors opening to a private balcony with deck chairs. Inside, a ceiling fan whirls under lofty beamed ceilings and over a king bed (twins on request), desk, and oversized lounge chairs. Each main level room features a sun parlor with two lounge chairs flanking French doors leading to a garden patio. Ocean View rooms are just steps from Peter Island's brilliant blue swimming pool. Take a swim, relax in a poolside chaise lounge, and order a refreshing tropical drink from the bar. A perfect day in paradise awaits you at Peter Island.

Falcon's Nest Villa - 6 Bedroom Perched 350 foot above the Caribbean Sea, the six bedroom Falcon's Nest Villa is set almost at the peak of a hill overlooking White Bay Beach with views to St. Croix on a clear day. The main villa holds two bedrooms, and two separate pods each hold a pair of bedrooms for a total of six. A large entryway leads to a living room with several seating areas wrapping around a verandah with a private pool. The villa also features a media room, kitchen, outside bar, and terrace with 180 degree views. Guests will have a personal steward/chef and island rover vehicle for exploring the island.

Property Amenities

Twice daily, the resort provides complimentary tours of Peter Island in a small truck fitted with open-air seats. The driver/guide provides commentary on the island's history, features, flora, and fauna. Complimentary roundtrip taxi and boat service to and from Terrence B. Lettsome Airport (servicing Beef Island/Tortola Island) also is provided. For full relaxation and contemplation of the island's green hills and the turquoise-and-blue Caribbean Sea, the resort provides hammocks here and there and teak rocking chairs on a walkway along a rocky point facing Sir Francis Drake Channel between Peter Island and Tortola. Adjacent to the swimming pool outside the lobby building, a separate building houses a library furnished with upholstered seating and one of the island's two television sets with outside reception. A health spa offers massage, facials, and body treatments such as Dead Sea Mud Body Wrap and Tropical Fruit Enzyme Scrub. Nail care and waxing is also available. Adjacent to the spa on Deadman's Beach, a fitness center contains a universal gym, free weights, cardio machines, and one of the resort's two televisions with outside reception. Complimentary shuttle service for getting around the resort is available by telephone call. Bicycles are complimentary. A resort boat transports guests between Peter Island and Road Town, Tortola on a regular schedule daily. On Tuesdays and Saturdays, a boat travels to St. Thomas and on Thursdays to Virgin Gorda. Fees are charged for these trips.

Recreation

The resort's water sports center lends snorkeling gear, small sailboats, windsurfers, and kayaks at no charge. Play on the resort's four artificial-grass tennis courts (two lighted) is complimentary. During winter high season, a tennis pro offers lessons for a fee. Mountain bikes for exploring the island's 5 miles of hilly trails and for getting around the resort are complimentary. The resort also includes a basketball court and a fitness trail with exercise stations. From the resort's yacht harbor, boats take guests on snorkeling and diving excursions, including dives on the RMS Rhone, a famous diving wreck dating from 1867 that lies 20 minutes away near Salt Island. For a fee, beginners' and certification scuba-diving classes are available. On Thursdays, the resort's boat transports guests to Virgin Gorda, where they can rent a jeep or car to explore the island or snorkel the famous Baths of Virgin Gorda. Picnic lunches are included in the meal plan, but a fee is charged for transportation. The resort operates its own 36-foot Hatteras yacht, which can be chartered for half- and full-day trips. A private operator at the island's yacht harbor offers half- and full-day trips aboard a 41-foot sailboat. Deep-sea and inshore fishing charters are also available from the yacht harbor. The recreational activities listed below are available at the resort. Fees might be charged.
