Sandy Lane

Hotel Rating: 5 Star

Overview

West coast beach

Located on a west coast beach, this resort offers three golf courses, an immense pool complex, and a huge health/fitness spa.

Plasma TVs

Guestrooms feature wide-screen plasma TVs, DVD/CD players, electronically controlled drapes, and spacious bath suites.

Luxury amenities

The pool complex contains 3 levels, the 47,000-square-foot health spa offers unique facilities, and the beach provides access to calm water.

What to Expect: A renowned retreat since 1961, the resort was rebuilt and reopened in March 2001 after an expenditure of several hundred million dollars. This hotel attracts vacationers from around the world who are accustomed to pampering service and content with understated opulence. Behind the gates lies a tranquil green haven of golf, sunning and swimming, fine dining, and high-tech amenities.

Amenity Highlights: An immense three-level pool complex is terraced into a green hillside and includes a rock-grotto waterfall. Fronting the hotel is a quarter-mile beach of fine, white sand furnished with blue umbrellas and thickly cushioned lounge chairs. A two-story, 45,000-square-foot health-and-beauty spa includes exceptional facilities such as an "ice room," aromatic vertical-and-horizontal showers, a jet-blitz hydrotherapy room, treatment suites with private garden-courtyards containing lounge chairs and hydro pools."

Insider Tip: Arriving early at L'Acajou, the resort's second-floor, fine-dining restaurant ensures a choice table for sunset and Caribbean breezes.

Recreation

The resort contains three golf courses, a 450-yard driving range, and an immense clubhouse containing a pro shop, a restaurant and bar, lounge areas, locker facilities, and private lounging rooms equipped with large plasma-screen televisions. Shoes and clubs are available for rent. Golf carts fitted with a Global Positioning System (GPS) are included in green fees. In addition to displaying distance and position, the system offers tips on playing each hole and can be used to order drinks and snacks. Designed by Tom Fazio, The Green Monkey championship course was carved out of a coral-stone quarry and features abrupt elevation changes and panoramic sea views. Named after Barbados' famed Green Monkeys, the course includes a bunker containing a grass island carved in a monkey's shape. Also designed by Fazio, the Country Club course features open fairways, five lakes, sea views, and green monkeys who inhabit gullies around the 18-hole championship layout. The Old Nine is the estate's first course, a 9-hole layout featuring tree-lined fairways. Play on nine lighted, artificial-grass tennis courts is complimentary. Complimentary water-sports equipment includes snorkeling gear, sailboats, Hobie Cats, and kayaks. The recreational activities listed below are available near the hotel; fees may apply.
