

The Regent Palms Turks and Caicos

 Hotel Rating: 5 Star

Overview

Located on Grace Bay Beach in Providenciales, this oceanfront boutique hotel and spa is one mile from the Provo Golf Club.

Spacious suites in this manor-house-style resort feature views of Grace Bay, full marble baths, kitchens, and granite entertainment bars.

Whether guests wish to shop, snorkel, swim, golf, or visit one of the island's two marinas, the Palms is close to it all.

What to Expect: Opened in early 2005, this condominium resort faces Grace Bay Beach, where powdery white sands meet azure waters. Guestrooms and suites are located in white buildings accented with white coral stone and arrayed around the serpentine infinity pool.

Amenity Highlights: Offering Asian, Indian, and Caribbean therapies, the spa offers treatment rooms in individual coral-stone buildings surrounded by a reflecting pool and couples rooms facing garden spa tubs. The 190-foot-long infinity pool includes a spa tub "island" and a swimup bar with tables and underwater banquettes. Teak lounge chairs and circular sunning beds with terry-cloth-covered cushions flank the pool. Use of snorkeling gear, Hobie Cat sailboats, and kayaks is complimentary.

Insider Tip: Private dinners can be arranged within the spa's grounds on an open-air terrace adjacent to a walled lawn and gentle waterfall.
