The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman

Hotel Rating: 5 Star

Overview

Beautiful beach locale

Beautiful Seven Mile Beach, famed for its clear waters and powdery sands, is the setting for this 144-acre luxury resort; Stingray City, a superb snorkeling site, is a 10-minute boat ride away.

Luxurious guest quarters

Spacious guestrooms and suites feature balconies with ocean or resort views. Beds are dressed with 400-thread-count Italian linens. Marble-and-limestone bathrooms have separate tubs and showers.

Celebrated cuisine

Highlights include Silver Rain, a La Prairie Spa; restaurants created by the chef of New York's celebrated Le Bernardin; a tennis center; and Jean-Michel Cousteau's environmental adventure for children and adults.

What to Expect: Opened in 2006, The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman spans 144 acres, from the white sands of Seven Mile Beach to the North Sound, a reef-protected lagoon that is home to Stingray City. The resort attracts guests seeking a luxury experience - including destination dining and a La Prairie Spa, combined with outdoor pleasures such as snorkeling and tennis.

Amenity Highlights: The resort's tennis program (surcharge) was created by Nick Bollettieri, the coach of Andre Agassi, Monica Seles, and Maria Sharapova. The center, with three red-clay courts and one grass court, a separate backboard, and water views, is staffed by professionals with training from Bollettieri's Tennis Academy in Florida. The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman offers five restaurants, including "Blue by Eric Ripert" created by Eric Ripert of New York's renowned Le Bernardin. Insider tip - Queen Elizabeth II Botanic Park, about a 30-minute ride from the resort, is the place to see rare Blue Iguanas, along with turtles, butterflies, and colorful birds. Occasionally, visitors may spot green Cayman parrots.

Dining

Blue by Eric Ripert

Created by chef of New York's Le Bernardin, recipient of Michelin three-star designation. Focus on fresh seafood prepared with delicate, herb-infused flavorings. Menu highlights include Red Snapper with Spicy Marinere of Baby Cockles; Sautéed Mahi-Mahi with Apple, Cucumber, and Caper Salad; and grilled fish with a choice of sauces, such as Rich Coconut Curry Broth.

Periwinkle

Alfresco grill showcasing simply prepared seafood with Andorran and Provençale accents. Salads, sandwiches, pizza, mini-burgers. Creative desserts such as Fried Banana Tempura" with Three Dipping Sauces.

7 Prime Cuts and Sunsets

À la carte breakfast and buffet featuring seven signature cappuccinos including white chocolate, hazelnut, passion fruit and guava. À la carte lunch. Dinner menu features steaks and seafood with Caribbean influences. Selections include Butter-Poached Caribbean Lobster, Prime Rib with Port Wine Jus and Grilled Filet Mignon with a choice of sauces. Indoor or terrace dining overlooking Seven Mile Beach and the Caribbean Sea.

Bar Jack

Poolside bar and grill with spectacular sunset views. Named for silvery reef fish commonly seen off the beach. Open daily from late morning to early evening.

Silver Palm Lounge

Named for Cayman Islands' national tree. Cocktails, caviars and light fare such as Citrus Conch Salad. Afternoon tea on Saturdays.

Sushi and Wine Lounge

Experience Grand Cayman's most luxurious sushi lounge. The Silver Palm Lounge provides the perfect haven to savor creative and inspired sushi dishes, perfectly paired with a vast selection of unique and delicate wines by the glass. Enjoy Grand Cayman's finest gourmet sushi lounge offering traditional makis, mouthwatering sashimi and the signature Silver Palm Roll along with unique and delicate wines by the glass and Japanese green teas and distinctive sake martinis. Open daily from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Silver Palm Bar

Silver-themed cocktails. Humidor stocked with hand-rolled Cuban cigars. Smoking terrace that faces northeast toward Havana.

Recreation

The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman is located in the center of Seven Mile Beach along the clear Caribbean Sea. The waters, teeming with colorful sea life, invite snorkeling, scuba diving, and relaxed swims. Guests can snorkel and dive just offshore, but the resort also provides boat rides (surcharge) to the best sites. The resort rents snorkeling and diving gear. Windsurfing and motorized water sports are available through independent providers along the beach. The Ritz-Carlton's tennis center (surcharge), with three red-clay courts and a grass court, a separate backboard, and water views, was created by Nick Bollettieri, coach of many champions. The resort has two outdoor pools: one oceanfront and paired with a spa tub; the other on the North Sound side. The fitness center offers complimentary group classes such as Body Sculpting and Soca/Reggae Aerobics, with surcharges for personal training. The Greg Norman designed Blue Tip deliver fiercely on its shark pedigree. A nine-hole "Caribbean monster," the course rouses golfers with its five long Par Fours into the Caribbean trade winds, which can make a 470-yard hole play like 600. Exclusive to guests and Residence owners at The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman, Blue Tip offers golfers the opportunity to make tee times at short notice and the enjoyment of a relaxing pace of play. The private course is perfect for both infrequent players who want to play at their leisure and passionate golfers who want to play multiple rounds in a single day. At Stingray City, a 10-minute boat ride from the Ritz-Carlton, visitors can swim under, over, and along with the rays, and hand-feed them, too. The recreational activities listed below are available either on site or near the hotel; fees may apply.
