

The Ritz-Carlton, St. Thomas

Hotel Rating: 5 Star

Overview

Secluded on the eastern tip of St. Thomas, this resort is a 15-minute drive from the Mahogany Run golf course.

180 guestrooms include signature Ritz-Carlton beds and marble bathrooms. Furnished balconies offer partial or full sea views.

Enjoy bay-view dining, use of aquatic equipment, children's activities, and two freeform pools.

What to Expect: The Ritz-Carlton, St. Thomas co-exists comfortably with nature, including a salt pond, iguanas, deer, and sea turtles. Couples and families come here for tranquil vacations. The main building resembles an Italian villa, with pink-marble floors and red-tile roofs. Lodging buildings on hillsides form an amphitheater facing Great Bay.

Amenity Highlights: Two beaches border the turquoise bay. Above each is a freeform pool, one with an infinity edge. The other is adjacent to a children's pool and two spa tubs. The hotel provides complimentary snorkeling gear for exploring close-in coral reefs. Use of small sailboats, windsurfers, and kayaks is also complimentary. A dive center offers scuba excursions and instruction/certification (surcharge). The hotel's catamaran transports guests to St. John and other islands for snorkeling and swimming (surcharge).

Insider Tip: On request and for a fee, the hotel sets out a candlelit table on the beach and serves a champagne dinner for two under the stars.
