

Verandah Resort & Spa

Hotel Rating: 4 Star

Overview

Beachfront resort

Set on 30 beachfront acres including 2 white-sand beaches, this resort is located in northeast Antigua, a half-mile from Devil's Bridge National Park.

Verandas with views

200 suites feature verandas with ocean or bay views, flat-screen TVs, microwaves, refrigerators, and complimentary wireless Internet access.

Spa, fitness center

Resort features include a spa, fitness center, 3 restaurants, and 4 bars. Guests may choose from an All Inclusive Plan or a European Plan (no meals).

What to Expect: This village-style resort sits on 30 acres overlooking white-sand beaches and a pristine turquoise bay. Incorporating natural materials whenever possible, the resort's low-rise structures were designed to blend with the surrounding landscape. The resort has a serene, welcoming ambiance throughout and attracts a mix of couples and families.

Amenity Highlights: Guests can enjoy tropical drinks while lounging on the white-sand beach or alongside the freeform pool. The resort faces a protected bay, which is ideal for snorkeling and kayaking. Other resort features include a spa, fitness center, tennis courts, and a kids' club. Three on-site restaurants range from casual to gourmet, and guests can unwind at four on-site bars.

Insider Tip: Fig Tree Drive, located 12 miles from the hotel, is a scenic route that takes you through a lush rainforest. Along the route, you'll pass roadside stands where locals sell seasonal fruit and homemade jams. Charming churches and sugar mills are also dotted along the way.
