

Cap Juluca

 Hotel Rating: 5 Star

Overview

Tranquil beaches

Designed for romance, this resort offers privacy and tranquility along two miles of the best pristine white-sand beaches in Anguilla and the Caribbean.

White villas

The resort features white villas graced with arches, domes, turrets, and parapets surrounded by tropical gardens. Rates include breakfast.

Oceanfront balconies

72 rooms include oceanfront balconies or patios and marble bathrooms with glass showers and deep soaking tubs.

What to Expect: Cap Juluca offers 179 oceanfront acres of tropical romance, beginning with a 60-foot-diameter white-canvas dome fronting the main building and lighted at night to resemble a rising full moon. From December 20 through March-with the exception of Christmas and Easter holidays-the resort does not accept children under age 6. The remainder of the year children age 2 or older are acceptable. (This policy does not apply to guests of three- or five-bedroom villas, who may bring children of any age at any time.)

Amenity Highlights: Composed of sand as fine as sugar and nearly as white, a half-mile beach shaped like an elongated C provides plenty of room for tranquil sunbathing on lounge chairs (or snoozing in the shade of white umbrellas). The beach rims Maundays Bay, a turquoise extension of the blue Caribbean lying between the resort and the mountainous island of St. Maarten/St. Martin 8 miles south. Picnic coolers filled with complimentary bottled water line the beach. Attendants deliver drinks and sorbet is served afternoons. As a freshwater alternative, the resort offers a large swimming pool surrounded by a terra-cotta-tile deck and decorated by a mosaic tile.

Insider Tip: Lying just 150 yards from the main building across a low headland, uninhabited Cove Bay offers beachcombers 1 mile of sand to explore. The beach is especially attractive at sunrise.
