Dining

Bobby Flay's Mesa Grill

Renowned architect David Rockwell captures the essence of Mesa Grill, translating it to an ambience perfectly at home on Paradise Island. The restaurant features vistas directly onto the beach and Atlantic Ocean with outdoor seating available. The bar features a terrazzo and sea shell counter with backlit glass and embedded goatskin, flanked by columns of river rock. Open for dinner.

Mosaic

A fresh concept in custom-made cuisine, this Mediterranean-influenced restaurant features action cooking stations to prepare dishes on demand, from fresh fish to churrasco. Designed by Jeffrey Beers, the restaurant changes from day to evening utilizing light to play off the polished chrome, wenge wood and limestone. Open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Cain at The Cove

This poolside café offers table and chaise-lounge service of fresh fare, from ceviche and sashimi bento boxes to gourmet burgers, wraps and smoothies. Full bar service.

Cascades Grill

Located near the Cascades pool area and beach, this poolside grill offers flavorful jerk meats, pulled chicken, BBQ pork, as well as seasonal salads, sandwiches, hot and cold wraps, and frozen drinks.

Seaglass

Overlooking Paradise Beach, this upscale lobby lounge serves fruit-infused martinis and signature drinks; the design features terraces that seemingly float over lush landscaping, with a backdrop of spectacular Bahamian sunsets.

Gourmet Dining Plan

The option of a Gourmet Dining Plan is offered to guests of The Cove. This unique plan includes full American breakfast in either Mosaic or a choice of five other Atlantis restaurants. Dinner is offered at renowned chef, Bobby Flay's Mesa Grill, Mosaic or a choice of 13 other Atlantis restaurants selected to please the most discerning palettes.

Recreation

Emerge into the world of Atlantis, offering Aquaventure—a waterscape experience unlike any other, with adrenaline-inducing water slides, inner tube rides, a mile long river expedition and rock climbing wall covering the face of a tidal wave generator. Overlooking Paradise Beach, adult guests may enjoy Cain at the Cove, an adults-only pool experience offering bar service, beach concierge and plush day beds. Guests of The Cove also enjoy access to the Sports Centre at Atlantis, including 6 tennis courts, a four-lane lap pool and fitness center complete with weight machines and a full basketball court.
